What's In This Issue?

February is a month of delightful contradictions—while we all hope the groundhog doesn't see his shadow, we can't help but cherish the joy that snow brings, giving our children the perfect playground to laugh, play, and be kids.

We are incredibly excited to announce our 10th Anniversary of Evening of Elegance—a night dedicated to celebrating and thanking all who help WRFN thrive and those we support. This event is not just a celebration; it's a tribute to the community that makes our mission possible.

February is also Black History Month, a month dedicated to honouring African Americans' rich history and contributions. While it's terrific to have a month dedicated to this important history, it also reminds us to celebrate everyone's history. We must acknowledge the problematic treatment of minority groups, including our community, and reflect on how human history informs our present. This reflection challenges us to continue making positive changes in society.

In this edition of Family Pulse, we invite you to explore the engaging events curated by WRFN and our incredible partner organizations. These activities are designed to bring families together, foster connections, and create memorable shared experiences.

At WRFN, our commitment remains unwavering: we strive to connect families of children with exceptionalities to vital support and resources. Our vision is a thriving community where every family feels appreciated, understood, and empowered. Let's make this February a month of connection, growth, and joy as we celebrate our shared history and look forward.

SEAC Updates

Waterloo Region District School Board- Special Education Advisory Committee Update - Submitted by Carmen Sutherland, WRFN SEAC Representative

Systems Administrator Stephen McCrae gave a presentation about Enrichment Programming for students with gifted profiles. He first discussed the WRDSB Vision and Conditions for learning, which emphasize equity and making sure there is equity, appropriate pedagogy, assessment and a supportive learning environment. He then discussed the student support process, which involves first a classroom teacher, and then various levels of school staff - with the support of parents making a plan to support a student. They then act on the plan, then reflect and assess whether the plan is working, and then repeat the plan until effective support is happening. He went over the characteristics of students with a gifted learning profile. These include cognitive ability, general and intellectual curiosity, sensitivity and motivation. He emphasized that every student is different and has different levels of each of these.

He also discussed the different tiers of support. Tier 1 support takes place within the classroom and could include different projects, instruction, extension of the curriculum, and working with small groups of their peers. Tier 2 involves partaking in some separate classes online within the school one day per week, which allows them to work with peers who have a similar learning profile on higher order thinking skills. Tier 3 involves students of similar learning profiles working together in a congregated classroom where they work on projects that extend and adapt the lessons from the original curriculum.

In response to this discussion, there was talk about how to communicate the student support process to all parents and caregivers, as well as how to incorporate self-directed learning (which students with gifted profiles often engage in) for all students.

The Trustees also discussed how they are collaborating with staff to reduce student behavioural incidents.

The next SEAC meeting will take place virtually on February 12, 2025.

SEAC Updates

Waterloo Catholic District School Board- Special Education Advisory Committee Update - Submitted by Karen Applebee WRFN SEAC Representative

The Waterloo Catholic District School Board SEAC met virtually on January 8. We were treated to an update of the Math Achievement Action Plan by the board's math lead, Petra LeDuc. She was able to highlight how our students match provincial standards or do not match them. She presented great insight to areas where our students are currently struggling and the reasons behind them. With a change in the math curriculum, we are seeing students caught in the transition phase. It gives our board areas of learning and specific schools to focus on finding ways to improve these statistics.

The group also discussed the Limestone District School Board's SEAC letter to the Ontario College of Teachers. The board hopes to encourage an increased focus and amount of time learning about special education. Our team discussed writing a similar letter in support of Limestone District.

Additional information was shared about the progress made in planning the upcoming Grace for All: Preparing for the Sacraments for Students with Special Needs event. The number of registrations online shows great interest. We are looking forward to the event on February 5, 2025.

Updates from Trustees and community groups were shared.

The next SEAC meeting is scheduled for February 5, 2025, and will take place virtually.

What's Happening at WRFN

WRFN programs and services are available in person. Supports are also available through phone and email connections and through other virtual formats. Please reach out and let us know how we can help you and your family.

Ask A Self-Advocate

Do you need to look at a challenge you are facing with a new perspective? Would you like to bounce ideas off someone who's been there? Cristina was diagnosed with exceptionalities as an adult, and is passionate about sharing her lived experience. Speak with Cristina to discuss your own questions and concerns to gain new insights and ideas. This program is open to individuals with disabilities, families, or service providers.

For more information on Ask A Self-Advocate please contact Cristina Stanger at cristina.stanger@wrfn.info or call 226-753-9090.

Parent Mentor Program

Through our Parent Mentor Program, we provide a means for parents to connect with each other, as well as guide, support and help empower each other to work through the highs and lows that make up their journeys. Our Parent Mentors provide information and emotional support; share ideas and strategies; and connect their mentees with community resources. Learn more about our Parent Mentor Program here.

School-Issue Parent Support Group

This peer-led group provides support, advice and a safe environment for parents who have questions or concerns about school issues affecting their children with special needs. The WRFN School Issues Support Group meets on the last Wednesday of each month during the school year. For more information, please contact Lisa Cook at lisa.cook@wrfn.info.

Family Resource Coach

Our Family Resource Coaches are available to meet in person, by phone, email, or virtual call to lend a helping hand and personal guidance to families and to connect you to updated information, resources, and opportunities available in our community.

Waterloo Region Family Network Presents the 10th Evening Of Elegance
Held at Federation Hall in Waterloo

Save the Date for April 25, 2025

Ten years? (That can't be right...checks notes in disbelief) Yes, WRFN's signature event, Evening of Elegance, is turning 10 this year. This anniversary surely means we will have to do something grand this year, and we could not be more excited to share this milestone with you all! We will also be celebrating the 15th year of WRFN; it is going to be a great time.

We kindly ask that you save the date of April 25, 2025, and join us at Federation Hall in Waterloo.

For those who may not yet be acquainted with it, Evening of Elegance is more than just an event; it is our signature means to unite our community in celebration and camaraderie. This annual gathering offers a delightful opportunity for our supporters to engage in a night filled with connection, exquisite dining, and joyful festivities.

Statement on Departing the platform X

Inclusion and Accessibility: WRFN Departs X

At the Waterloo Region Family Network (WRFN), our mission has always been to create a community of connection, support, and accessible opportunities for individuals and families with exceptional needs. Inclusivity, empathy, and respect are core values that guide our work.

It is with deep disappointment that we have made the difficult decision to depart from the X platform for the time being. Over the past year, we have witnessed X devolve into an increasingly exclusionary and politicized space, one that frequently employs ableist language and promotes divisive rhetoric.

These developments stand in stark contrast to the inclusive and welcoming environment we strive to foster at WRFN. We cannot, in good conscience, continue to engage on a platform that so openly disregards the dignity and humanity of the very individuals and families we exist to support.

Our commitment to our community remains unwavering. We will continue to connect, advocate, and uplift through our other digital and in-person channels. However, until X demonstrates a genuine effort to address the issues of toxicity, ableism, and exclusion that have come to define its current state, we will refrain from participating.

WRFN stands firm in our values. We will not compromise our principles or abandon our community. We look forward to the day when we can safely and confidently return to X. Until then, we will direct our energy and resources toward building connections and supporting the needs of our families and individuals.

A NEW CHAPTER

This group is for family members & caregivers interested in preparing for the future of their youth/adult family member with a lifelong disability.

We have a new feature to our meetings called "Ask Us Anything" from 9-9:30pm. This is a chance for those who attend the meeting to ask questions or clarify points when the main part of the meeting is over.

Join our Facebook group called A New Chapter – parent and caregiver connections.

Understanding Our Sexuality and Communicating with Compassion

Join us on Tuesday, February 4th at 7pm to explore and clarify compassionate messages you want to convey to others. You'll develop skills, gain perspective, and learn about yourself. Bring your curiosity and questions to this session.

Monica Bennett, a sexuality and health educator and certified life coach, will lead the session. With decades of experience in the not-for-profit and health sectors, she brings openness, knowledge, and good humor to this work.

All other meetings are virtual Zoom meetings from 7:30pm-9:00pm

If you would like to receive emails about our monthly meetings (always the first Tuesday of the month), please email Mary at maryjpike@hotmail.com and ask to be put on our email list.

Student Links Program: Application and FAQ

Funded by the Ministry of Children, Community and Social Services, Student Links is an opportunity for students (ages 14 to 21) who identify as having an intellectual disability to explore ideas for their future after high school. It matches students and mentors who share a common passion or interest. The goal is to enhance their capacity to make informed decisions about their future before leaving school and support the natural development of relationships and connections to their community. Student Links is tailored to meet the needs of each individual student and may include hands-on experiences, exploration of new interests, and an introduction to work, volunteer or community-based roles. Opportunities are created for students to meet with people currently engaged in or with substantial knowledge of the identified interest.

The possibilities are endless! After completing the application found at the bottom the first step is for the student to meet with the Student Links coordinator and together identify ideas, interests, passions and roles they are interested in. oneROOF Youth Services Host Homes program oneROOF's Host Homes program offers short term stays for youth who are at risk or experiencing homelessness in the Waterloo Region. OneROOF staff work alongside private homeowners who volunteer by opening up a space in their homes offering short term accommodation to youth in need. While in the home, youth are supported by program staff to establish goals and work towards finding long term, stable housing by the end of their stay. Program staff also offer support to the home providers with weekly check-ins and 24/7 on call support. Both home providers and youth are screened to ensure safety and ability to follow program guidelines. Providers are expected to provide a grab and go breakfast, evening meal, as well as a room that is furnished. In return, youth participants pay a weekly stipend of $90. Providers are not expected to take on a guardian/parental role, but rather to be a supportive adult who can be a mentor and role model. To learn more information visit <https://www.oneroof.org/host-homes>.

Partial Day Attendance in Canadian Schools: an Inclusive Education Canada Roundtable

Inclusive Education Canada held a roundtable discussing the issue of partial day attendance, where students with intellectual disabilities are forced to attend school for only part of the day. This practice disrupts learning and can lead to isolation. The roundtable featured leading experts and Mr. Kelly Lamrock, K.C., the New Brunswick Child and Youth Advocate, who recently released a powerful report titled "A Policy of Giving Up." Access 2 Card

The Access 2 card is designed for individuals with permanent disabilities who need attendant support at participating venues. The card allows the attendant to enter for free while the cardholder pays regular admission. Eligibility extends to people of all ages and disability types. It's accepted at numerous venues across Canada, including many movie theatres and recreational sites. To obtain the card, the person with the disability fills out an application form on the Access 2 website, which requires confirmation of need from a healthcare provider. The card costs $20 for three years or $30 for five years, and once the application is submitted, cards are typically issued within 4 weeks. Accessibility Services Offered Through the KPL

Borrow a Chromebook

Kitchener Public Library partnered with the City of Kitchener to expand WIFI access in public spaces. Community members can now borrow Chromebooks from the collection to take home for a one-week loan period. The devices are available at all five library locations.

Daisy Reader with Download Content

Daisy readers are intended for customers who are blind, have low vision, or have another form of print disability. KPL recently purchased Daisy reader machines with enhanced navigation functions for easy use. They've added eight Victor Stratus machines to play Daisy audio discs and digital direct-to-player content through the Centre for Equitable Library Access (CELA) digital library. They also have five Victor Stream readers, a smaller pocket-sized device that only plays digital direct-to-player content.

The library has been lending Daisy Readers and Daisy discs for a long time, but this is the first time lending Daisy devices with pre-loaded digital direct-to-player content. Staff can pre-load a mix of about 50 titles of different genres and interests on the Stratus and Stream readers, and the content rotates every few months. Customers can also complete a reading profile, and library staff will load additional digital content that suits their reading interests and preferences on a device for them.

New Yoto Mini Collection

The Yoto Mini is an excellent audio format for young kids. The small audio player plays audiobooks encoded on colourful plastic-coated cards. The Yoto players and accessories are nicely designed, attractive, and easy to use and manipulate. They are for children from birth to 12 years old. They are accessibility friendly for users with print, learning or developmental disabilities. The current collection includes 13 Yoto players, each with a set of audio cards on a different theme.

Visiting Library Service

Visiting Library is a free service that provides monthly delivery of library material to Kitchener residents who cannot visit the library in person.

Visiting Library customers can select their library material by placing holds through the catalogue or have a Visiting Library Selector (volunteer) gather library material based on their DiscoverRead form (reading profile).

Faith and Culture Network Survey: Your Input Needed*

The Faith and Culture Network is seeking to gain a deeper understanding of the importance of faith and culture for individuals and families. Your insights are invaluable, and we kindly ask you to take a few moments to complete the Faith & Culture Network Survey. This survey aims to determine whether individuals or families with developmental disabilities desire or are receiving access to faith and cultural services. The information gathered will assist in collaborating with Developmental Services Ontario to understand better how families prioritize faith and culture when seeking and receiving services. The survey will take approximately ten minutes to complete, and the next question will appear as you answer each one. Please note that the survey will close on February 21 at 11 pm. You can access the survey by clicking here. Thank you for your participation!

FASD Ontario Website Faces Funding Cuts, Community Mobilizes for Support*

In a concerning development, the Ministry of Children, Community, and Social Services (MCCSS) has announced plans to cut all funding for the Health Nexus FASD Ontario website, <https://fasdinfo.ca/>. Launched in 2018, this bilingual platform has become a trusted hub for FASD research, best practices, events, support groups, and diagnostic clinic information. The FASD community urgently needs supporters to advocate for the website's continued funding. An online petition, "Save the FASD Ontario Website," has been created to mobilize awareness and demonstrate the importance of preserving this invaluable resource.
