

LCOworks

Employment training and job connections for people with developmental disabilities in Ontario

What is LCOworks?

LCOworks is a free online program that supports positive employment outcomes for individuals with developmental disabilities, a traditionally underrepresented and at-risk population in the labour market.

Everyone deserves a chance to find meaningful employment and we are proud to be able to provide this program for free to individuals across Ontario.

Who is Eligible?

Any Ontario resident with a developmental disability is eligible to participate in LCOworks.

*Program space is limited

If you think LCOworks would be of interest to you or to those you serve, we want to hear from you.

Program Components

Person-Centred Employment Planning

Participants will create an employment plan, connect with their network of support, and access program content through the LifeCourseOnline platform.

Customizable Learning

Self-paced, online learning content will be provided for individuals, families, and employers.

Expert Support

Participants will have access to dedicated Employment Specialists for support in planning.

Job Connection

LCOworks-vetted employers can connect with participants through our LCO Employment Portal, exclusive to the LCOworks program.
