

Intimate Partner Violence (IPV) - Brain Link

Education on Brain Injury Caused by IPV

Free Webinar: Friday February 17, 2023 - 12:00 pm

Leading impairments from Brain Injury (BI) as a result of IPV can include the following:

Physical

Cognition

Communication

Emotions

Identity

Did you know?

STRANGULATION is the most dangerous form of IPV and can lead to brain injury in IPV survivors. It increases the possibility of DEATH in subsequent assaults by 748%

Acquired Brain Injury Research Lab. (n.d.).
from <https://abiresearch.utoronto.ca/>

Learn How to Help

Hosted by an IPV/BI Specialist this webinar is for anyone who works with women and/or families or has an interest in learning more about the relationship between gender-based violence and brain injury.

Learn about brain injury in those who have experienced gender-based violence, signs, symptoms and how to help mitigate leading impairments as an agency staff, first responder or person in a supportive role.

Register here or via the QR code

Private agency webinar sessions are available for larger staff groups. Please email program@biaww.com